Fantasy

*Every man has a place, in his heart there's a space
And the world can't erase his fantasies.
Take a ride in the sky, on our ship fantasii.
All your dreams will come true right away.
And we will live together
Until the twelfth of never
Our voices will ring forever as one.
Every thought is a dream, rushing by in a stream,
Bringing life to your kingdom of doing.
Take a ride in the sky, on our ship fantasii.
All your dreams will come true miles away.
Our voices will ring together
Until the twelfth of never
We all will live together as one.
Come to see victory in a land called fantasy.
Loving life, a new decree
Bring your mind to everlasting liberty.
Our minds will explore together.
Old worlds we conquer forever.
We then will expand love together as one.
Come to see victory in a land called fantasy.
Loving life for you and me
To behold your soul is ecstasy.
You will find other kind that have been in search of you
Many lives have brought you to recognize
It's your life, now in review.
And as you stay for the play fantasy has in store for you
A glowing light will see you through.
It's your day, shining day,
All your dreams come true.
As you glide in your stride with the wind as you fly away,
Give a smile from your lips and say,
I AM FREE — YES, I'M FREE
NOW I'M ON MY WAY!*

Every man has a place,
in his heart there's a space.

And the world can't erase his FANTASIES.

Every student at Juniata has their dreams for the future, and this college provides the opportunity for each person to gain the knowledge needed to attain that goal. The people and the activities they take part in bring the stone buildings to life. It's the parties and the plays, the projects and the pride, the programs and the players, which make it a single entity.

The Class of 1982 has weathered their four years together, and now emerges as a unified body, symbolizing a spirit of friendship and togetherness which transcends the competition of the classroom. It is a spirit gained only through work, loyalty, and love. They now go out to display their abilities and challenge the world. With the experience they have gained and the knowledge they have acquired, this group of young adults now has the means to turn FANTASY into REALITY!

Take a ride in the sky,
on our ship fantasii

All your dreams will come true right away.

The events which highlight the year are an unforgettable part of Juniata: the traditional Storming of the Arch and autumn's Mountain Day, the warmth of Madrigal Dinner and frosty Winter Week, the antics of All Class night and floating through the Raft Regatta to name just a few. To the Class of 1982, these special times will stand out in their minds and spark cascading memories of Juniata. Through these games and rituals, they played out their fantasies. They were able to lose themselves in the spirit of the moment and enjoy it to the utmost. It's amazing what a little JC tradition can do!

Every thought is a dream,
Rushing by in a stream

Bringing life to your kingdom of doing.

Extracurricular activities have always been stressed as a major part of any student's life, and at Juniata that is certainly the case. Clubs and committee meetings serve purposes more important than as early evening study breaks. The opportunity to serve and be involved is here, and student drive keeps it alive. These clubs and organizations not only provide fun and relaxation, but in addition they give students the chance to put leadership and technical skills to work. Responsibility and authority are practiced to ensure smooth functioning, resulting in a finished product.

The Class of 1982 has assumed responsibility for the operation of many groups on campus. Their control and dedication will leave a mark for following staffs and officers. They have kept Juniata's student body active and informed. Thanks to all for their efforts!

Our voices will ring together
Until the twelfth of never

We all will live together as one!

FRIENDS is a word that carries a lot of meaning at Juniata. These are the people you laughed with, cried with, struggled through Writing Program and Modes with! They were there when you messed up your Organic II final or aced your OFA paper. Who patted you on the back when you hit that home run, or made you smile after you missed that foul shot? Who celebrated with you when you FINALLY turned 21? Who sat up typing your SVS paper till 4 A.M., or walked downtown with you to Sheetz' at 2 A.M.? These people helped make your fantasies come true. These people are your FRIENDS!

The Class of 1982 has been quite a friend to Juniata. They have been the leaders in school spirit and pride. The friendships they have developed among themselves and the other students won't be forgotten long after May. Juniata won't forget them either!

Competition on both the varsity and intramural levels remains keen on Indian territory. But Juniata spirit and pride always come through. This enthusiasm is evident in the tough matches with league teams, and in the races against rival squads. It always surfaces at the numerous MAC meets, and was exemplified by the women's volleyball team in their performance at the NCAA Championships which highlighted the Juniata sports year.

On the intramural level that spirit may rise at a volleyball playoff match, or in a basketball game against a team of East House boys. But season after season, in whatever form, student athletes continue to strive for excellence. Each should be honored for their goals and their determination to attain the mark.

The Class of 1982 has produced a number of fine athletes and its members have made outstanding contributions to the morale of the various teams. Victory is no longer a fantasy!

Our minds will explore together
Old worlds we conquer forever

Juniata students are academically challenged every step of their educational way from Freshman Conference up through Senior Values Studies. The highly skilled faculty and administration serve as guides on this exploration, forever prodding and encouraging students in their respective fields. This educational process does not stop once the finals are graded or the diploma is awarded. That is only the beginning of the growth which each Juniata student must continue on his own.

The lectures and labs make up only a portion of the faculty-student relationship. Through frequent meetings and counseling, students find that Juniata professors do care and are more than test-grading, lecture-giving robots put on this earth to serve as personal plagues. They push us when we need it and slow us down when we move without thought. Through the faculty and the Juniata curriculum, knowledge can be ours and fantasy can be made into reality!

We then will expand love together as one.

It's your day, shining day!

EVENTS

Don't Try Suicide

As the unsuspecting freshmen collectively descend toward Cloister Lawn, you notice the upperclassmen confidently flexing their muscles, practicing their awesome sneers and anxiously awaiting their arrival. This is a time when each man is on his own.

Amid the mass of stampeding bodies, rotten eggs, abandoned sneakers come hurling through the air landing at your feet. As the stench of both irritates your nostrils, you see some persistent freshman bolt through the crowd only to be thrown back with half his clothes ripped and torn (or worse) by some muscle-bound upperclassman. Between screams of excitement and sheer terror for someone's life you suddenly realize you're watching an event that would seem totally barbaric to most other people.

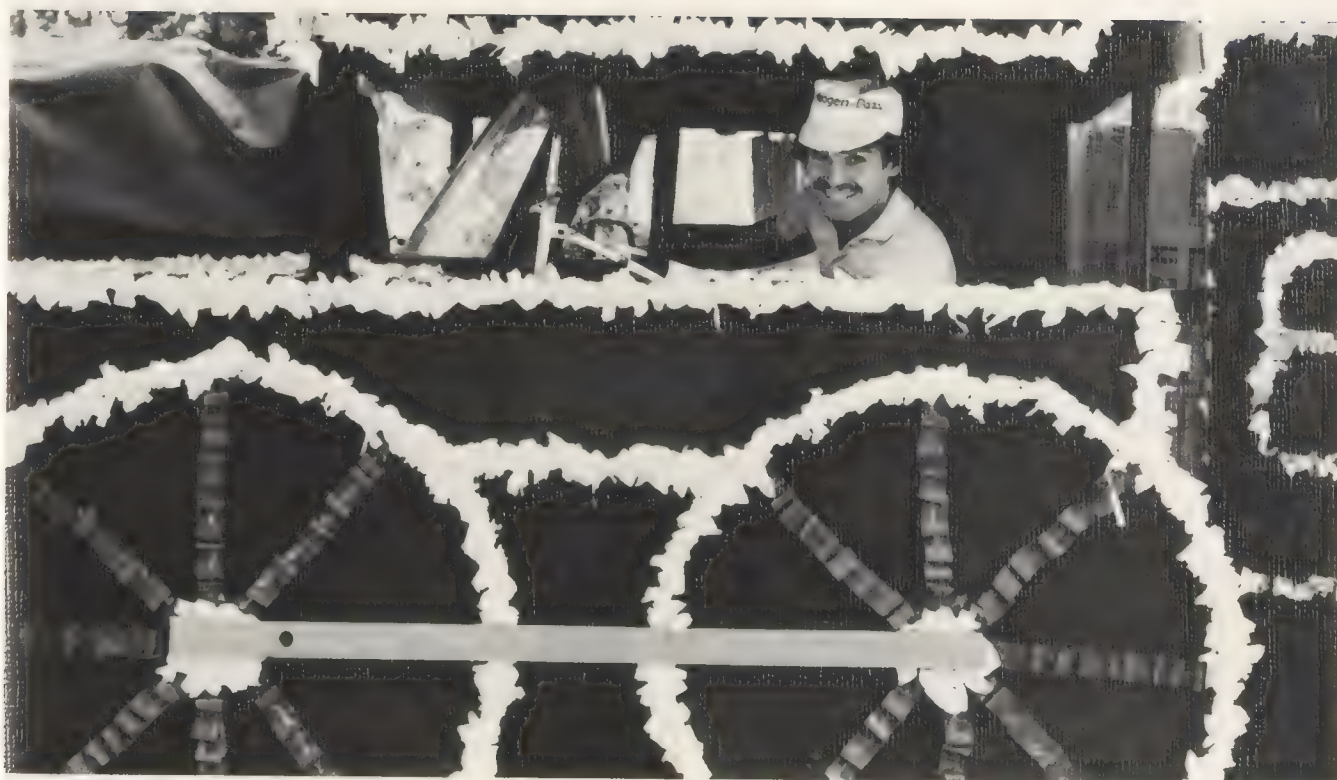

At Juniata though you're experiencing the true essence of Juniata's oldest tradition, The Storming of the Arch. The storming pits the male freshmen against the upperclassman males with a challenge to storm through the resistant mob and successfully through the Cloister Arch. The battle goes on until the upperclassmen or the freshmen break down, whichever, comes first. Usually unsuccessful, the freshmen aren't too upset, especially when their bodies and minds are still intact because they realize there's still — LESHER!!

Seems Like Old

like

Old Times

"Seems Like Old Times" could best describe the atmosphere of the 1981 Homecoming weekend. Familiar faces abounded around campus as early as Thursday evening and by Saturday, veteran and rookie alumni seemed to outnumber actual students. For the present upperclassmen, you may have thought you were repeating a past year if you didn't check your calendar.

If the familiar and friendly faces didn't send you back in time, then the theme of the weekend would - The Wild West! Viewing the parade seemed like watching brief segments of history flash before your eyes. Everything from Conestoga wagons with pioneers and Indians, to an old West barroom scene with gamblers and showgirls, to the Great Train Robbery complete with an actual reenactment. Throughout the day there were people milling around in Old West getups and Indian costumes to complete the atmosphere.

The highlight of the football game, besides Jeff Miles 99-yd. kickoff return TD, was the half-time festivities. The parade of floats passed the crowd one last time (surprisingly before they fell apart) and it was announced the seniors had taken first place with the Great Train Robbery. The juniors captured second and the South dorm float placed third. Then the parade of Homecoming contestants strolled out onto the field with their escorts. The court was announced with Connie Kilroy chosen as our 1981 Homecoming Queen.

Later in the evening, a square dance was held on the tennis courts with the Raystown Swingers. Everyone enjoyed the bluegrass music and learning the new steps.

The entire weekend was a success with all the festivities and friendship, but it seemed to end so quickly. On Sunday the alumni packed their bags to leave, saying goodbyes amidst laughter, promises and tears. Their departure was the grand finale for a special weekend. Looking back we can remember how the 1981 Homecoming weekend didn't just "Seem like old times." It was "A good old time!"

“Football, Spareribs, and Mountain Day”

The day dawned bright and early with no hint of surprise or unusual activity, until the bells tolled and screams of excitement announced to the campus that Mountain Day was here!!

After the word spread, some fell back into bed, others headed straight for the distributor, but most others planned for the day's activities. The buses headed out to Trough Creek (site of the original Mt. Day) early, loaded with excited students and faculty ready to enjoy a day of fun and relaxation. Once out at Trough Creek, hidden in the beautiful wooded mountains, the students found plenty of activities to engage in with volleyball and horseshoes set up, footballs, and frisbees available, plus nature hikes to Balance Rock, The Ice Mine and Swinging Bridge. This kept everybody busy until lunch and afterwards the competitions began.

First the annual tug-o-war pitted each class against one another with the sophomore girls and senior guys victorious. The sophomore girls felt confident enough to challenge the senior guys, but their strength didn't match as they were pulled over after some opposition.

The popular egg toss was next and practically everyone brave enough to risk a broken egg on their faces entered. Moving egg further away for each throw, some were eliminated immediately, others were fortunate when their eggs 'bounced' off the ground, however everybody finished with egg mess on their bodies, except the egg toss champs, Lou Kalkines and Bev Supanik.

The annual senior/faculty football game capped off the afternoon festivities appropriately. What a better way to interact with your profs than on a football field where almost anything goes! Everything was fair though and after some spectacular throws, lucky catches and unbelievable runs, the seniors emerged as winners.

The day was one filled with relaxation, friendship, laughter, full activity and excellent weather, set in an atmosphere of natural beauty amidst the trees and babbling brook. Everybody present couldn't help but fully enjoy themselves, and regret the inevitable bus ride home that would return them to the world full of studies, tests, and responsibilities. Those thoughts make 1981 Mountain Day just that much more special.

It's Only A Masquerade Or Is It?

The Halloween spirit was set into full swing at Baker Refectory by the students and cafeteria workers. As we all know, our cafeteria isn't McDonald's or OIP (the ideal eating spots) so it's more out of habit and lack of funds that we eat there. On the Thursday night before Halloween, the cafeteria was anything but dull and ordinary. One might even venture to say that the atmosphere made for a delightful meal.

This delightful meal wasn't due to the hiring of a gourmet chef or the development of some exotic dish. It was the unusual, the extraordinary, and the ridiculous no, not the Juniata students - but their costumes that filled the cafeteria with laughter, jokes, and sneers.

You could find the standard clowns, bums and witches, but who would ever imagine an entire male women's field hockey team. Intensifying the laughter was a 5'8" incredible hulk, several 'live' Hershey Kisses, and the entire cast from the popular soap opera "General Hospital." It looked as though the whole student body temporarily had a bad case of the 'uglies' and 'gruesomes'.

There's one result, due to the perpetual curiosity and laughing, no one remembers what we ate for dinner that night. It was the 'best' meal we'll ever have, Thank you Halloween!

This year as well as every other, the Madrigal weekend held special memories for all who attended. Seeing all the guys in three piece suits, and women in nice dresses began to set the mood of the Christmas weekend. After the dinner, which was fun trying to eat Cornish hens, the traditional "12 Days of Christmas" brought everyone closer together. From the partridge posters to the napkin wearing maids-a-milking and lords-a-leaping of tables the competition grew fierce to see which group could be the most creative.

Christmas Spirit

The beauty of "Silent Night" shared with lighted candles made all feel closer to their friends. Upon leaving to go to "Amahl" a light snowfall blanketed the campus with a special glow and set the Christmas spirits soaring.

The evening went on with the Madrigal Dance and small cocktail parties. Saturday evening featured the annual South and East parties going on until the wee hours of the morning.

“Amahl and the Night Visitors”

ht

The Christmas Spirit was continued after Madrigal Dinner as everyone strolled to Oller to enjoy Juniata's Concert Choir present "Amahl and the Night Visitors".

The opera is a very charming tale about a crippled boy, Amahl and his experiences on the night of Christ's birth. The night visitors are the three kings who stopped to rest at Amahl's house on their journey to see the holy child.

Kelly Walasik played Amahl while Majorie Hirsh portrayed his mother. Miguel Esteban, Jay Hinish and Dave Molchany played the part of the three kings.

As the audience departed from Oller a light sprinkling of snow began to fall capping off a perfect evening.

Here Comes The Sun

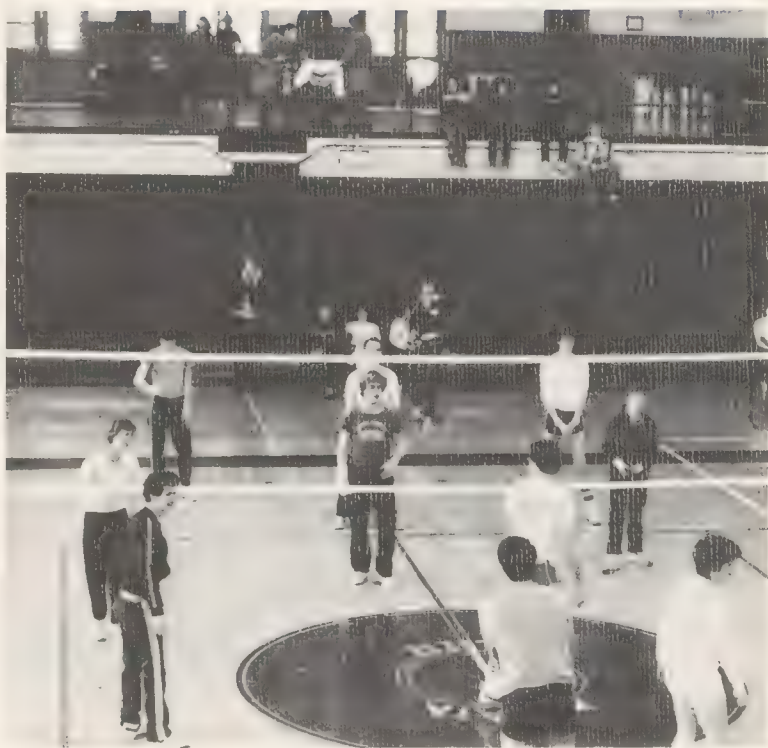

Young adults are often accused of being self-centered and apathetic, but at Juniata students turn out annually with enthusiasm to support Circle K's 24-Hour Marathon for the fight to wipe out multiple sclerosis.

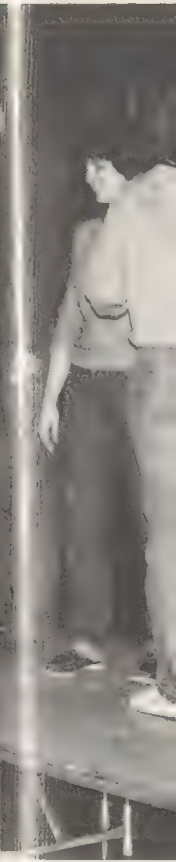

Early on a Friday evening, participants arrive rested and ready to play volleyball, cards, board games, dance and rock for what to many will seem like an eternity. They hustle and drive to make it through the wee hours of a cold Saturday morning, usually wondering if the parties they missed the night before had been any good! Friends often drop in to "see what condition you're in," and to supply munchies to keep the participants' spirits up.

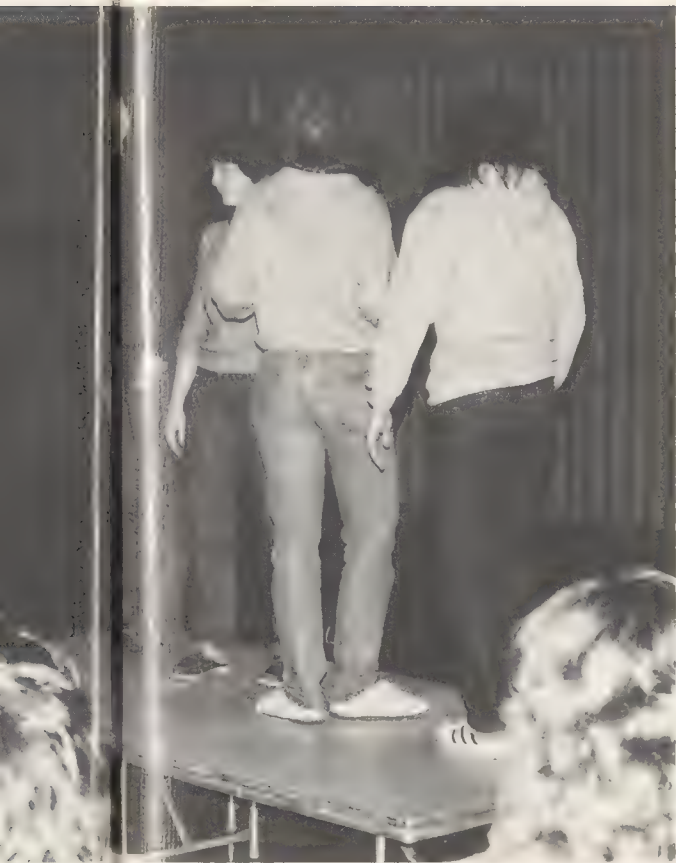

As the sun beams through the gym windows, and the V92 DJ's blast the "William Tell Overture," the players pass the mid-way point. The long haul begins around noon as the players see at least seven or eight hours ahead of them. Then the arms become tired, legs get stiff, and some wish they'd never lay eyes on a volleyball again. That is when everyone digs in and gives the marathon all they have got.

As the twenty-fourth hour arrives, many cannot believe it went so fast, others are proud to say they made it, but everyone, players and Circle K workers both, all agree that a hot shower, a snack, and a comfortable bed are the only rewards they want for their efforts. Yes, JC students do care!

Sweat poured from every freshman's brow, a forced smile emerged as time drew near. Questions ran through their minds: "What am I doing here?" "Why me?", "Is anyone going to buy me?", "Do you think anyone would notice if I sneak out now?" To the freshmen slaves, these questions were all too real.

What's the excitement winter term? The Freshman Slave Auction - another attempt by the upperclassmen to make the freshmen feel like the low-life of Juniata. It is held to create class unity and funds, and with a little luck, the upperclassmen might even get their apartments cleaned. If you attended the auction you would have heard phrases like, "He's not worth more than $1.50", and "Turn him around I want to get a better view," coming from the many enthusiastic members of the audience. However, not only upperclassmen attended, amid the crowd in 'drag' you found a professor or two cheering just as loudly.

To the unsuspecting freshmen standing on the platform being viewed by their peers the pressure was catastrophic, but to anyone in the audience it was worth not studying for that Chemistry test!

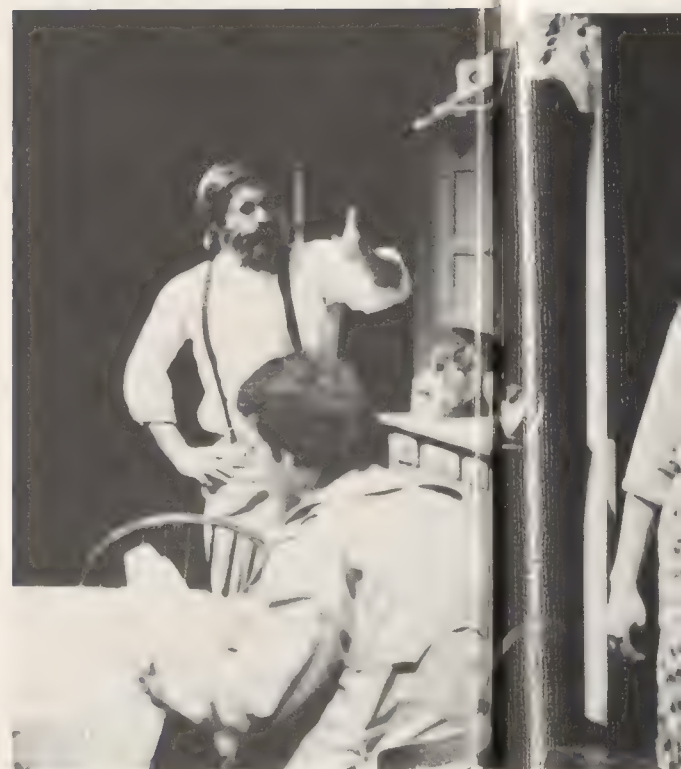

"... Going Once, Twice, Sold!"

Our fall play ‘Da’ was just another fine exhibition of the acting talent at Juniata. What a funny name for a play, one might say it even conveys a negative impression; however, this play was anything but negative.

‘Da’ was a reflection of a man looking back into the past. It was a comical portrayal of a young boy’s life. It also showed the ‘hardships’ a boy must endure. The man, Charlie, saw his mother (Ma) and father, whom he called Da — thus the name of the play.

The three major characters were: Charlie, Da and Ma. Tony Calderelli, Bernie Snow, and Dara Torrico played these characters respectively.

The audience was made to feel the mood of the play by sitting up on stage during performance. This tactic made everyone feel the closeness and warmth emanating from the actors.

This play surpassed its name because no one said, "Da, Why did we come to this play?" after the performance.

Encore! Encore!

Throughout the year Juniata presents numerous plays displaying the amazing talents of the students. This year's One Act Plays allowed us to appreciate student ability, other than acting, for all the plays were directed by students, Allison Keller, Margot Waitz and Kathy Pacca.

The plays, presented in three-quarter round on Oller stage, began with "Curtains" as Rick Mayher portrayed a theater critic responsible for murdering the theater.

An eleven-person cast presented the second play "The Man Who Wouldn't Go To Heaven".

The finale "Home Free" was presented by Chris 'Corky' Collins and Jenny Buzby.

The plays proved very successful with both the student actors and directors deserving a standing ovation. Encore! Encore! will be heard until next year's One Acts are presented.

A 'Classy'
Competition

"When you said you got tickets to the musical I figured it was to see a Broadway show. What are we doing in Oller? Can't we ever get way from JC?"

"Settle down, Cissy, sit back and enjoy these musicals I think they'll be a little unusual but very entertaining. Besides my roommate borrowed the car for the evening."

The volume from the balcony amplified as the actors exchanged chants in support of their class. The excitement was mounting even before the competition began. Finally the performance schedule descending from seniors to freshmen was announced.

"East Side Story" was the theme of the seniors play. Preppy, athletic and nerdy JC students entered a bar only to encounter 'townies'. A romance developed between one prep and a 'townie' and the story and singing continues with the two eventually getting together. It was funny and well-sung with good class participation.

Dorothy was on her journey to visit the Wizard of JC in the Junior's presentation of "The Wizard of Oz". She picked up three companions along her travels. The flowers, munchkins and monkeys all added to the fine performance.

The Sophomore's "Rocky Horror Picture Show" could have been accepted as a Broadway performance. Their costumes, sets and acting were all well rehearsed. The highlight was the entire cast rocking to "The Cloister".

The sweet-singing, Mandy stole the heart of Johnny in 'Grease', the Freshmen play. They did a fine job with all aspects and those 'feminine' roommates of Johnnie especially caught the audience's attention.

For the first year in many, the professors added to the evening with a presentation of "Send In The Clowns". A chorus of voices sang the verses as a few of the noticeable campus clowns paraded across the stage.

The entire night was a very "classy" performance with the Sophomores unanimously taking first prize followed by the seniors, Freshmen and Juniors.

"Gee thanks for taking me. I had a fantastic evening."

"I knew you would, Cissy, How about a date for next year's plays?"

Juniata's Springtime Blooms Brightly

The alarm is ringing, but the clock reads only 5:30 a.m. "Oh great, the alarm's broken! Now what am I going to do?" But then you suddenly remember you set it for that atrocious hour so you'd have enough time to get dressed for this year's special breakfast.

May Day comes but once a year and on this special morning half the student body, males as well as females, arise early to prepare.

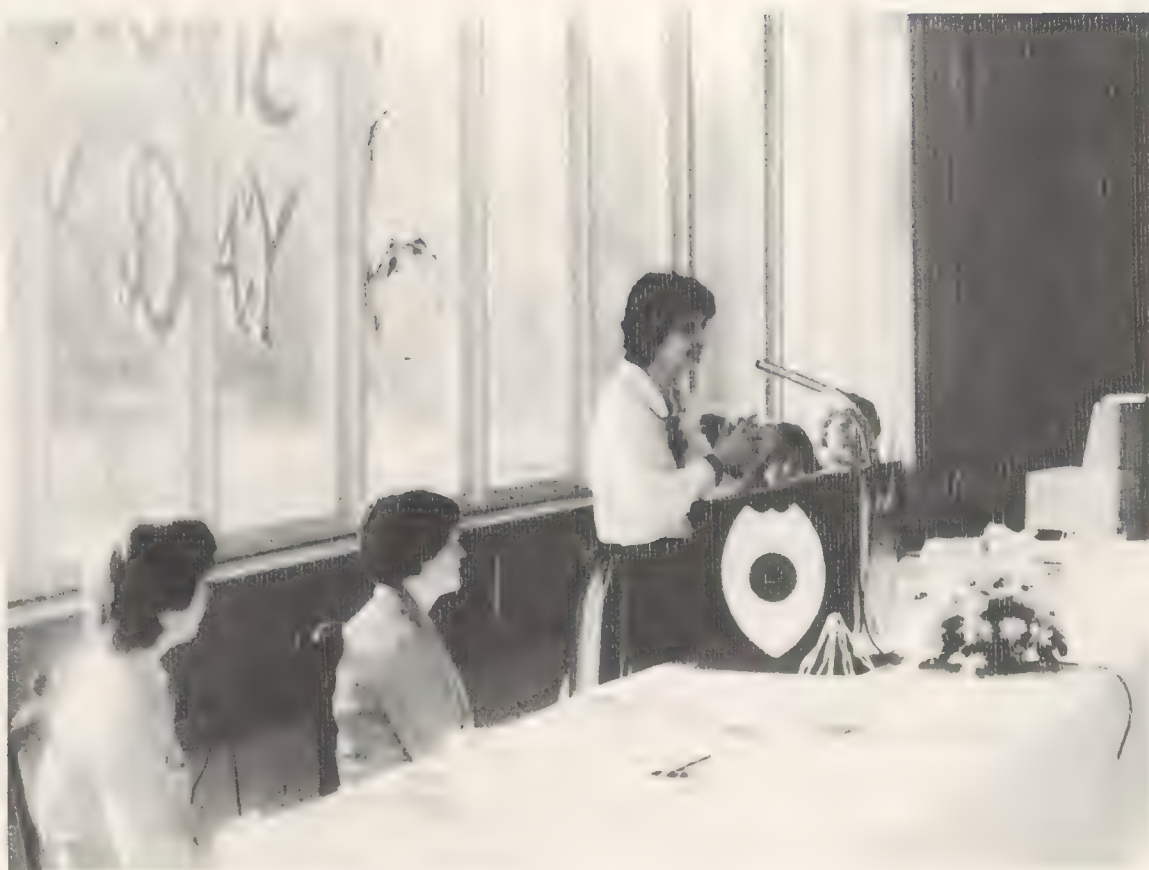

By 6:45 all women are in Baker Refectory in their finest spring-wear seated with friends and distinguished Juniata wives, faculty and trustees. The cafeteria has been transformed into a lovely spring garden with flowers blooming everywhere. The breakfast is then served by Juniata's men in their waiters' attire. (Gee, how a suit can transform some guys into 'guys')

This year, Juniata graduate, Dr. Carol Pletcher spoke with a thought-rendering message for all females. After her speech the May Day queen and Man-of-the-Year along with their court were announced, as Kelly Walasik and Mike Ford were bestowed the honors.

May Day certainly was a memorable occasion this year as always. One I'm sure many Juniata students will set their alarms for, for many years to come.

Andy Kaufman "Taxi" to JC

Sometimes at Juniata it feels like you're situated in the mountains in a very small town with no escape. The only outside contact with the world is through television. Television personalities occasionally visit JC. This year "Taxi" star, Andy Kaufman, entertained us with his comedy routine, however because of a severe neck injury he was unable to perform his wrestling challenge with a female from the audience. We laughed, booed and cheered his many personalities and skits, especially enjoying his bongo drum routine. Mostly we found excitement in meeting a real television star, however we also found relief in the realization that we aren't in the wilderness but the outside world does still acknowledge our existence.

And the evening was off to a great start as all the big gamblers on campus strolled into the gym with high expectations of hitting big stakes. Black Jack, the Roulette Wheel and the infamous "hamster races" all added to the evening. The Varsity 'J' club sponsored event was a big success with everyone departing satisfied. Even if they did lose a bundle they still came out ahead knowing the fun and excitement of friendship and high stakes!

“... and They're Off!”

After the ceremonial atmosphere of May Day Breakfast wore off later in the day, Juniata students turned to a different springtime ritual, JEC's annual mud volleyball tournament. Nothing can compare to an afternoon of stomping and jumping around in the mud to bring out the spring fever in a person! Donned with their oldest pair of shorts and T-shirts fit for the rag pile, the enthusiastic players stepped cautiously into the ooze. Mud squished between their toes and inevitably every person got pushed into the mud, receiving a proper "baptism." Mud got smeared, pitched and slapped on everyone, including many unsuspecting bystanders who had just come to watch. Never turn your back on a person covered with mud!!!

Good, Clean Fun — JC Style

Once the game began, many players took dives into the mud in an all-out effort to win their games. Some lost sneakers which got sucked down into the murky bottom and were never seen again! The tunes provided by the college DJ's kept the momentum and excitement pumping. Once their games were over many players ran for hoses, only to be shocked by freezing cold water. That did not matter because getting clean was the only thing on their minds.

By early evening the courts were well above ankle deep in mud, but the players' energy and spirit were high. Everyone had a great time and many will probably return next year to relive their childhood exploits of getting real dirty. Best of all, Mom can't stop you now!

There's nothing else quite like it! Floating down the river, drink in hand, soaking in the rays, and praying that the raft will hold together for at least a few more hours. Enjoying the peacefulness that the river exudes, you treasure the beauty of friendship, freedom and faraway finals, forgetting the hassels you went through to get your raft together.

It started out with only a few friends then everybody heard and asked if they could be on it. When you tallied it up, over twenty people on the raft, so you figured as long as it's gonna be big it might as well be bold too. Go for the extra keg, barbeque grill or how about a 'double decker ferry'? Then everybody was too energetic and coordination ceased, or nobody was able to help build and you had to do it yourself until 3:30 the morning before. Ah, the hassels of preparing for a good time.

Well, how everybody successfully ended up on the river is forgotten and it was well worth the effort anyway. The day proved nice, not too sunny but then again, no rain. The river was high so it was fast sailing but for all those who fell in or chose to take a dip they realized it was very cold too! It seemed everybody both aboard and on shore had a great time — hopefully enough to keep the Raft Regatta a long standing tradition!

Springtime Country Fair

During May, Juniata students were treated to another special weekend — Springfest '82. This year's springtime celebration met with cloudy, rainy weather, but the showers did not dampen the good time and fun.

Activities for the weekend included two gym dances which featured excellent funk and punk groups, a pie-eating contest, a "Family Feud" competition which pitted faculty and students, and J-Club's Waterslide outside North Dorm which kept its riders cool! A new event, which may become a Springfest tradition, was the powderpuff football contest. On muddy, wet fields the class teams met in an all-out, knock-down-drag-out competition which saw the Juniors victorious over the Sophomores for the championship.

As if Juniata students don't need another excuse for blowing off a spring weekend, the Springfest celebration provided the chance for all to relax and unwind in a good, old-fashioned way!

Clubs and Committees

Each year Juniata's many clubs, committees, and organizations sponsor a number of activities. From the numerous Centerboard committees, service, communications, and career clubs come many good times, both cultural and recreational, such as concerts, dances, publications, activities for special days and weekends. SPORTS

Volleyball

"Victory in a land called fantasy" — the women's volleyball team sure fulfilled their fantasies with lots of victories: a 38-6 overall season record. With impressive spirit and skill the team placed second nationwide, finally bypassing a division dominated by Western Maryland. Individually they were phenomenal; Colleen Irelan became the only non-Californian on the All-American team. Larry's Ladies — Faaantaaastiic!

1981 Football at Juniata was outstanding. With a 6-2-1 record the team tied for first place with Delaware Valley in the MAC league. The unfortunate loss to Lycoming did not show how the Indians outran, outpassed, and outplayed the Warriors. Eleven players were voted on the all-star team; they closed the season fourth in ECAC. Special honors went to Eric Biddle, league player, and Coach Rob Ash, league coach.

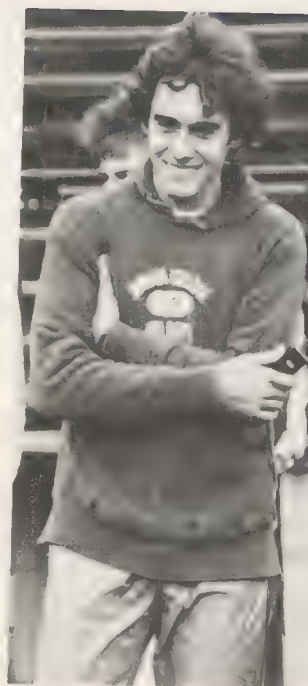

FOOTBALL

Cross Country Coach Bill Latimore prompted the first Juniata women's varsity sport to an undefeated season: 6-0. The depth was incredible with freshmen runners Angie Spickler and Chris Scheiden adding new strength. Senior Co-Captains Mary Yankaskas and Dana Taylor deserve special recognition for their spirit in the team's second varsity year.

1981 Women's Cross Country Team: Left to Right: A. Spickler, J. McLaughlin, K. Cesareo, L. Rizzo, N. Roach, L. Golamis, M. Yankaskas, D. Taylor, R. Bardman, S. Richards, C. Schleiden, C. Andre, K. Manzella; Center: Coach Latimore.

1981 Men's Cross Country: Row 1: G. Kidd, B. Marshall, J. Burr, A. Pearson, D. Long, K. Eidman; Row 2: Coach Shuler, M. Royer, J. Grove, G. Peterson, M. Murray, T. Caldarelli, A. Marsh, S. Snyder.

Cross Country

Former top runner Bill Shuler took over as coach of the harriers. The 1981 season was an okay year after a disappointing loss of five of 1980's top seven runners. Injuries also hurt the team. Season record was 2-4.

S O C C E R

In a fine season showing remarkable improvement the Indian soccer men ended with a 4-9 record. Having a no-win record for the first years, the team came back with confidence enabling them to pull together and demonstrate overall talent. Brian Bullock led them in scoring; and Captain Jeff Dougherty led them in enthusiasm.

1981 Soccer Team

81 Soccer Team; Row 1: R. Morand, M. Fillman, S. Steffey, M. D'Olio, B. Bullock; Row 2: S. McCarthy, S. Marle, C. Doran, J. Dougherty, G. Steckly, E. Brown; Row 3: S. DiMarco, R. Gibbons, K. Fox, D. Hutchinson, M. Manion, B. DelBuono, R. Angelotti, C. Kanaskie.

Although the Field Hockey team's final record stands at 3-6-1; the women managed to "put it together" and prove their talent at the Susquehanna tournament. Juniata placed second out of 12 teams only losing first to tough Lock Haven. Individual talent became evident when five players were selected to play at the Mid-Eastern tournament in Rochester, NY and two players were chosen to MAC all-conference teams.

FIELDHOCKEY

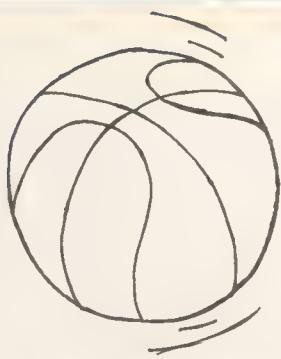

First year head coach Dan Helm's Indian cagers completed their season with a 10-13 overall mark. Losing by less than four points to Albright, Del Valley, Kings, York, and Shippensburg, the Tribe held on to the end. Center Mark Rucinski led the team in scoring and rebounding. Consistency was also demonstrated by second scorer Dan Feruck and second rebounder Senior Joe Chuba.

1981-82 Men's Basketball Team: Row 1: L. Hudzicki, P. Kardish, J. Ostrowski, D. Feruck, S. Lehigh, B. Musser; Row 2: Asst. Coach K. Walsh, Asst. Coach T. Deep, A. Witmer, D. Roberts, J. Chuba, M. Rucinski, J. West, B. Bruzga, J. Weiner, Head Coach D. Helm, Manager J. Sopata.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

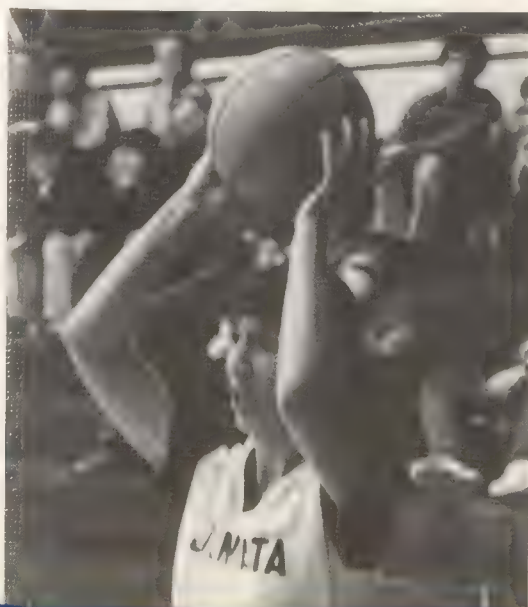

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

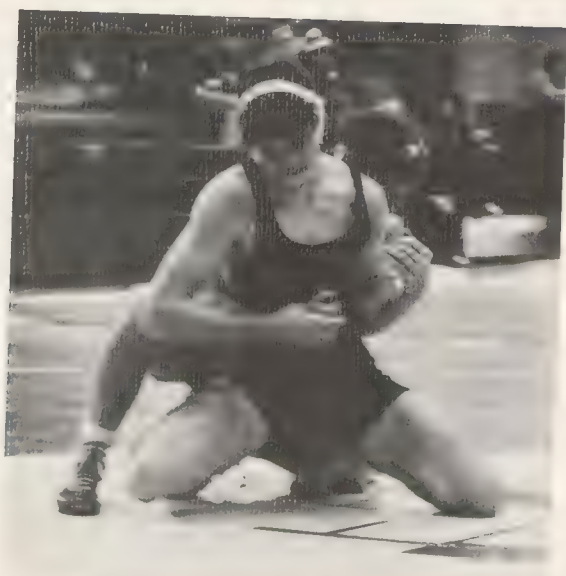

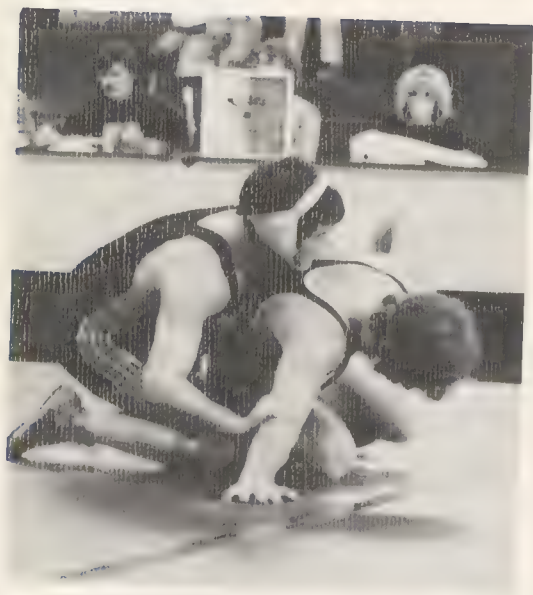

1981-82 Women's Basketball Team: Row 1: A. Brua, C. Hickie, E. Fasnacht, N. Roach, H. Crable, T. Eckenrode; Row 2: H. Roche, P. Ryan, S. Wampler, M. Luciano, C. Bilak, M. Glendenning, M. Stover, Coach Latimore.

Though the women's basketball team was not as successful as hoped for (a 6-13 record), outstanding performances were still evident by individuals. Freshman Cager Patty Ryan led 'em in scoring. Junior Aimee Brua held the high scorer position in the Scranton game. Marie Glendenning led 'em in rebounding and Nancy Roach led 'em in steals. Underclassmen show the team's potential.

With a winning record of 7-6 the Indian wrestling team sent seven grapplers to the MAC Tournament. Freshmen Al Kreuzburg, and Rick Noll, Juniors Chris Young and Rick Schuck, and Seniors Tom Swavely and Dan Jendrzejewski — all contributed in the event. The most impressive performance was by Keith Sherbine, who captured second in the 190 lb. division.

WRESTLING

Throughout the ups and downs of the football and basketball seasons, the peppy Juniata cheerleaders provided encouraging smiles and moral-boosting cheers. Their enthusiasm radiated brightly and was exemplary on and off the athletic field.

BASEBALL

Determination in pitching, hitting and running the bases made the Juniata squad tough to beat.

Inspired by All-MAC Seniors centerfielder Jeff Miles, who led the team in hitting, and pitcher Scott Johnson, who earned a 6 and 0 record, the 1982 Indian baseball squad finished the season with a notable 17-0 record. The season was highlighted by a 3-0 sweep on the Southern tour and the strong effort of winning three clutch games in a row to reach the MAC Tournament although losing a tough 3-2 battle to Upsala.

1982 Women's Rugby Team: Row 1: D. Litecky, D. Henry, L. McClure, M. Long, K. Cesareo; Row 2: T. Libert, S. Good B. Hare, R. McNaughton, N. Fieldman, A. Hildebrandt, W. Meek; Row 3: S. Kidder, R. The 1982 Men's Rugby season held some real surprises. The team made national and international news as a result of the skull incident during the game with the Pitt Club. The Pitt players had attempted to frighten the Junians by rolling skulls on the field. "We weren't intimidated," says President Mark Murdoch in reference to the day's losses. "We just don't know how to play the game." The team did not finish the rest of the scheduled games: the record was 1-2.

When Coach Dan Jendrzejewski took time off from the men's team to help the women, the female ruggers pulled their first victory against Bucknell. "We keep up the men's party tradition — we even crown a king at our parties." The women's record was 1-3.

TRACK

The weather didn't cooperate with the men's or the women's track teams. After a slow start the women managed to compete in one meet and two invitationals finishing 9th out of 16 teams at Delaware Valley. The men pulled an 0-5 record with three decisions resting on the last event. MAC standouts included Eric Biddle, 1st in the triple jump; Tom Bell, 3rd in the long jump; the team placed 8th out of 16. Biddle went on to compete in Nationals.

Weather interfered with the softball schedule. Midseason the team began to pull together after defeating Dickinson. Unfortunately they didn't place at MAC's, but the team never lost its enthusiasm.

The golf team fared quite well this year, ending its season with a 3-1 record. Even though Juniata did not prove to be the top team in the MAC's, freshman John West did go on to the Nationals. He could be the man to watch next year.

INTRAMURALS

Juniations take pride in intramurals; approximately 85% of the students participate in approximately twenty-five programs. These activities do not require intensified training, nor a high level or skill, yet keen competition can be found within the frame work of its leagues and tournaments. Now, did you earn your championship t-shirt this year?

Most of the time candid sports shots speak for themselves. From September to May athletic happenings catch the camera's eye. Special thanks to Steve Silverman, Tom Owen, Jim Henry, and Bob Kemper. J.C. athletes, as these pics show, are the GREATEST!!!

Often it was a struggle getting all the pictures for varsity and club sports scheduled. Then there were layouts and sports wrapups. But we did it: thank to lots of good people in and out of the yearbook staff. Wendy Ibister, Deann Nokovich, and John Lindroth also contributed their talents to putting this section together. Thank you!

ALFARATA 1982 FANTASY becomes reality!

The Class of 1982 deserved an excellent yearbook with a fitting theme. "Fantasy" was chosen because of the spirit and unity transmitted through its lyrics. That clearly identifies the Class of '82 — spirit and unity. We ran the theme throughout these pages as a tribute to this extraordinary group of seniors. Hopefully we have accomplished our goal of providing a memorable keepsake of this year, and have captured all the good times of this year at Juniata.

On these pages are pictured the ALFARATA '82 editors and staff. Despite frequent slowdowns and rushed deadlines, the spirit of the staff kept going and sparked the book's completion. Thanks to them all and special thanks to Professor Doris Goehring who serves as the advisor for ALFARATA. Her guidance and enthusiasm provided the "push" we needed every so often!

Here it is! Our FANTASY is now REALITY!

Shuster,

Commencement 1982

Commencement weekend is always a happy occasion, with parents beaming with pride and seniors filled with hope to go out and tackle the "real World." It is also a sad time filled with goodbyes, thanks, and promises to "keep in touch." For this special weekend, Juniata does it with style.

The pre-Commencement Reception gave everyone a chance to mix and mingle on Saturday night. On Sunday morning baccalaureate exercises took place followed by the Commencement luncheon. Then finally, after a four-year bout with books, bills, essays and exams, the Class of 1982 received their earned reward. The seniors were awarded bachelor degrees in a split ceremony which began under threatening, cloudy skies outside Oller, and ended under the roof of Memorial Gym. The dark skies and dreanched robes were no reflection of the prevailing spirit of joy and accomplishment. Speeches given by class president, Bruce Sickel and commencement speaker, Ainslie T. Embree, highlighted the ceremony in which the seniors and JC exchanged farewells.

After the president's reception which followed, the graduates faced a most awesome task — moving out! That meant physically hauling home collected junk and possessions and emotionally taking a part of JC home with them in their memories!

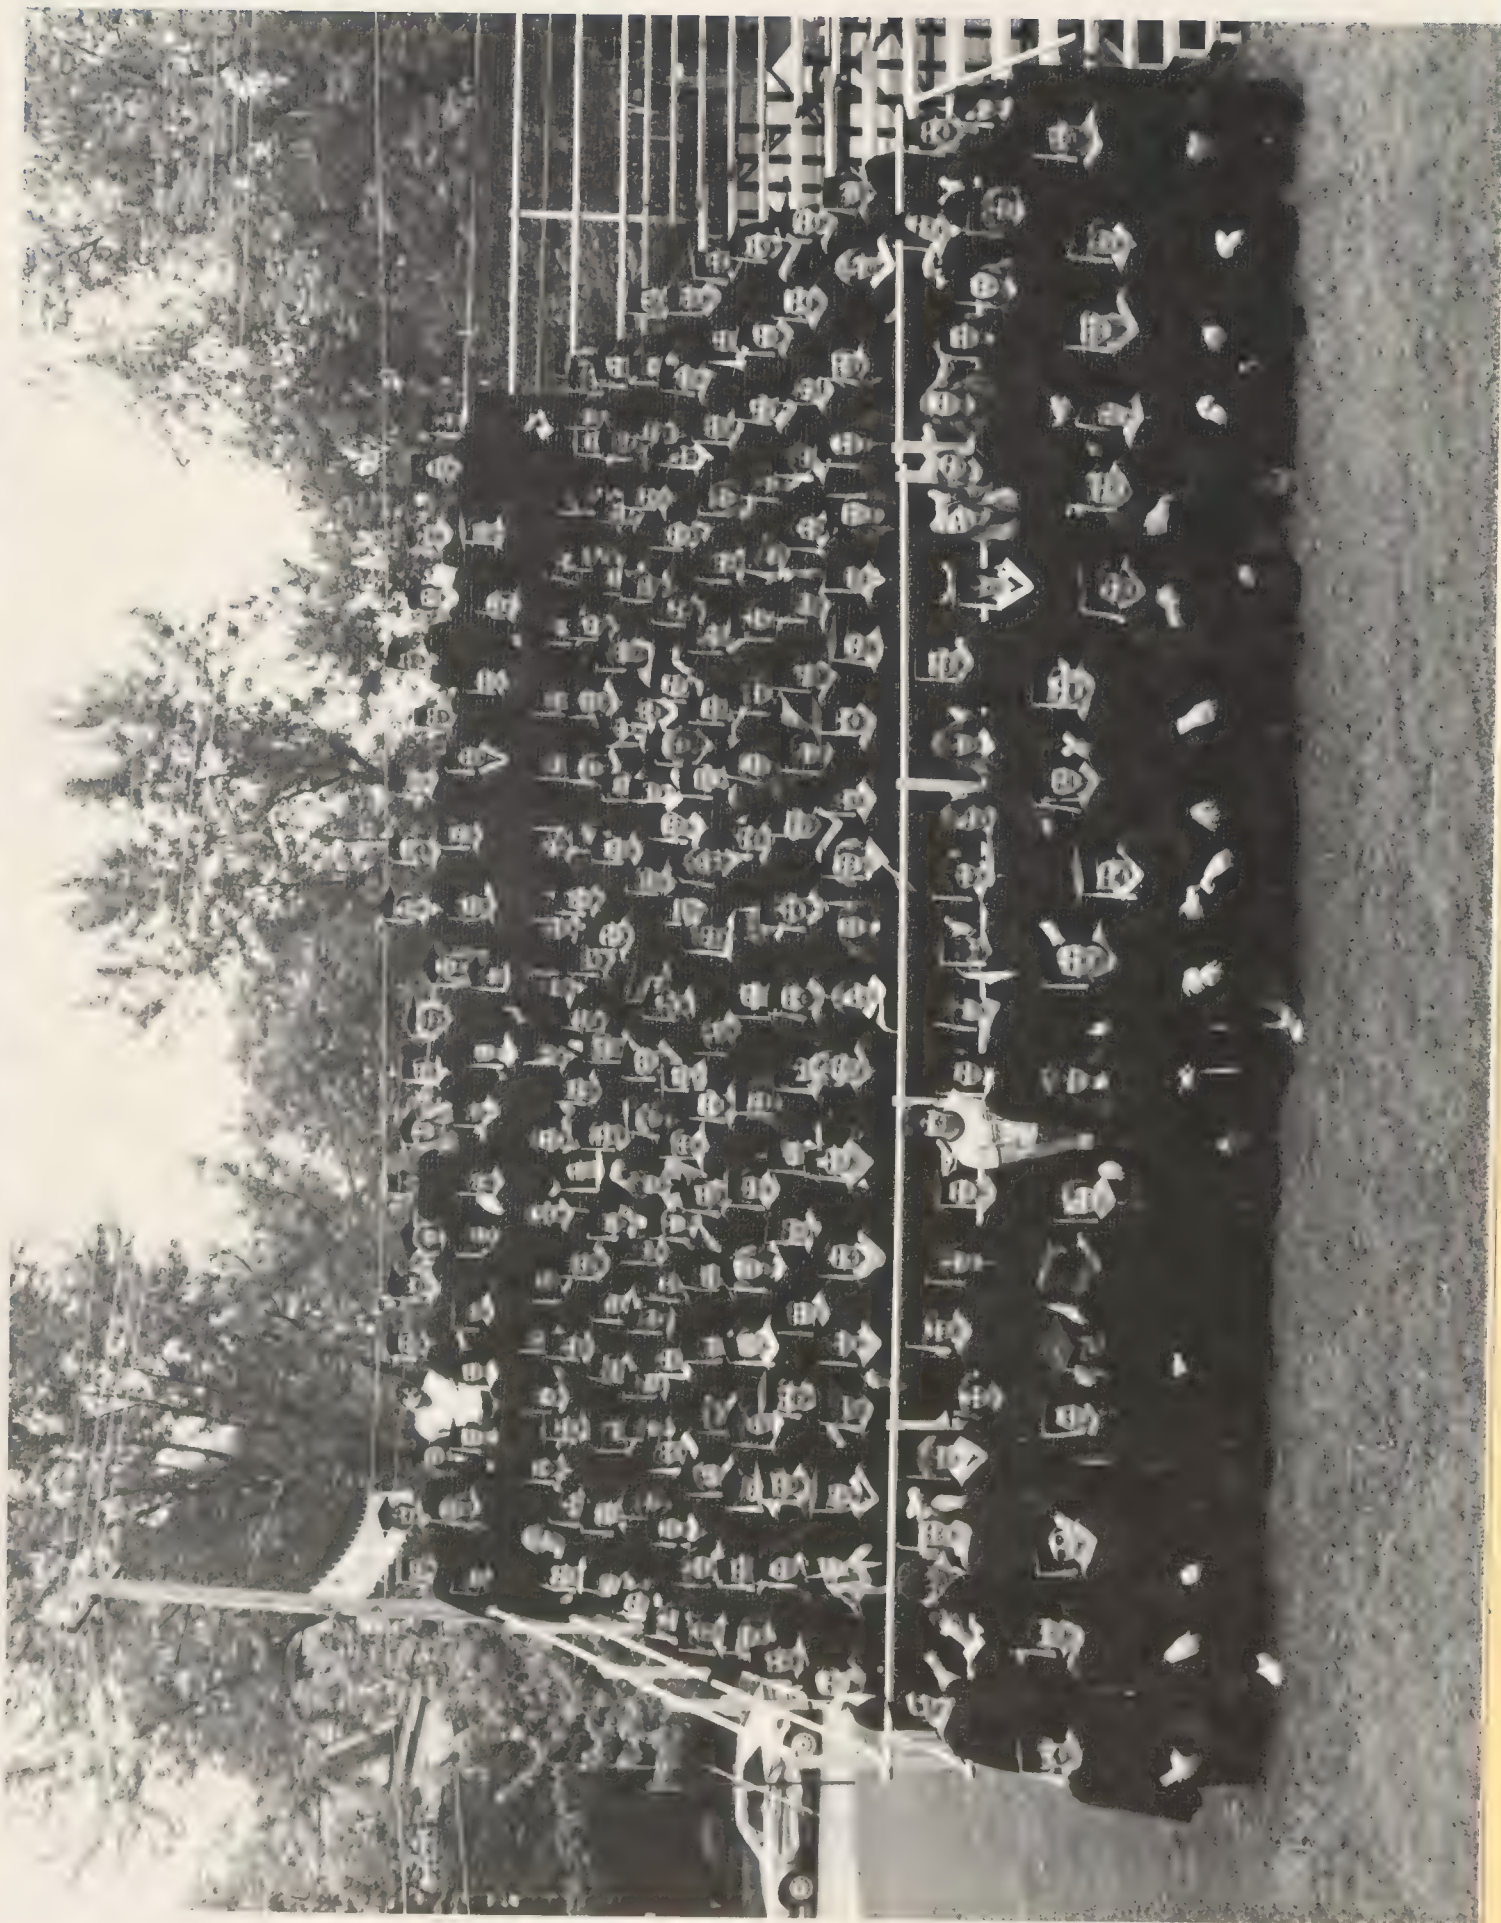

Now I'm on my way!

Fantasy

Every man has a place, in his heart there's a space
And the world can't erase his fantasies.
Take a ride in the sky, on our ship fantasii.
All your dreams will come true right away.
And we will live together
Until the twelfth of never
Our voices will ring forever as one.
Every thought is a dream, rushing by in a stream,
Bringing life to your kingdom of doing.
Take a ride in the sky, on our ship fantasii.
All your dreams will come true miles away.
Our voices will ring together
Until the twelfth of never
We all will live together as one.
Come to see victory in a land called fantasy.
Loving life, a new decree
Bring your mind to everlasting liberty.
Our minds will explore together.
Old worlds we conquer forever.
We then will expand love together as one.
Come to see victory in a land called fantasy.
Loving life for you and me
To behold your soul is ecstasy.
You will find other kind that have been in search of you
Many lives have brought you to recognize
It's your life, now in review.
And as you stay for the play fantasy has in store for you
A glowing light will see you through.
It's your day, shining day,
All your dreams come true.
As you glide in your stride with the wind as you fly away,
Give a smile from your lips and say,
I' AM FREE - YES, I'M FREE
NOW I'M ON MY WAY!
